II. Old Business

- a. Jennings/ Baker Davis Land- Lauren and George have been in contact with MCHT about keeping gooseberry point open to the public. They have laid out the discussion that they have had, and the proposal they would like to bring to the town. The board believes this a good proposal. Lauren and George will write a letter to the town explaining the proposal so that at town meeting we may as a community we may discuss and vote on the proposal.
- b. Treasurer- We are ready to switch from BHBT to Machias Saving, when the new account has been opened, board member C. Hodgkins will go to the bank and close out the accounts and bring the transfer checks to the new bank. - Daniel has created a primary budget that will be distributed to the board, and we will have a budget meeting in the beginning of April. – Nancy Thurlow has been contacted by board member S. Brake about the hold up on switching to payroll service. Nancy said she will be in contact with the service to have some of her questions answered.
- c. Fellow- Motion by S. Brake to cut a check to the island institute for $1,000.00 community match, second by J. Lunt Motion Passed
- d. Town Dock- Board member C. Hodgkins has been in contact wit Eric Eaton about replacing a piling at the town dock, Eric has quoted the town at $3,000.00 Motion by C. Hodgkins to allow Eric to do the work, second by S. Brake. Motion Passed.
- e. BMV Update- R. Bishop has expressed that she does not want to by the excise collector next year. S. Brake has contacted Tremont to see if we can possibly move our registrations to Tremont. They would like for us to call BMV in Augusta to see what that entails, and we will also need to contract TRIO to see what kind of upgrades will be needed for them and at what cost to keep their town excise separate from ours. S. Brake will need to look into this further.

III. New Business
